

DID YOU KNOW?

ETFs usually have a lower expense than active mutual funds

- ETFs usually have low expense ratio as compared to active mutual funds which may have expense ratio around 2.25%* (regular plan).
- For example, plain vanilla ETFs like NIFTY 50 ETFs are available at an average of just .08% whereas, a few thematic or exotic ETFs can go as high as ~1%.

Note: The expenses may change within the limits provided by SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996.

ACTIVE MUTUAL FUNDS

It is always advisable to consult your financial advisor before investing.

All Mutual Fund investors have to go through a one-time KYC (Know Your Customer) process. Investors should deal only with Registered Mutual Funds (RMF). For further information on KYC, RMFs and procedure to lodge a complaint in case of any grievance, you may refer the Knowledge Center section available on the website of Mirae Asset Mutual Fund.
